I haven't heard from Joel. I'm getting nervous. I realize now I should have copied you on my email last night to him — let me forward that to you now.

Hi,

I will be putting together a few edits on these (comments due March 30).

Dear POPRC-15 participants (BCC),

I am forwarding you the invitation for comments on the draft risk profiles on Dechlorane Plus and methoxychlor and draft reports on the review of information on specific exemptions decaBDE and SCCPs sent to Parties and observers to the Stockholm Convention.

Please kindly review the drafts and provide your comments to me by email before 30 March 2020.

Thank you,
Kei

Dear Sir/Madam,

Please find attached a letter inviting comments on the draft risk profiles on Dechlorane Plus (DP) and methoxychlor and draft reports on the review of information on specific exemptions for decabromodiphenyl ether (decaBDE) and short-chain chlorinated paraffins (SCCPs).

The fifteenth meeting of the POPs Review Committee was held from 1 to 4 October 2019 in Rome. The meeting report is available on the Convention's website: www.pops.int/poprc15.

At the meeting, the Committee established intersessional working groups to prepare draft risk profiles on Dechlorane Plus and methoxychlor and draft reports on the review of information on specific exemptions for decaBDE and SCCPs. In accordance with the workplan adopted at the meeting, the groups have prepared the draft documents.

Parties and observers are invited to review the attached drafts and submit comments by e-mail to kei.ohno-woodall@brsmeas.org before 30 March 2020.

If you have any questions regarding this invitation, please let me know.

Best regards,
Kei
